VIII. Other major assets.

Article III: Appraisal Procedures

I. The means of price determination

(I). The securities obtained or disposed through the Centralized Trading Market or GreTai Securities Market ("GTSM") of the Republic of China shall be priced based on the trading price at that time.

(II). For the securities not obtained or disposed through the Centralized Trading Market or GTSM, the prices shall be determined after taking into account the net worth per share, profitability, potential of future development and with reference to the trading prices at that time; or to be determined after taking account the interest rate prevalent in the market, interest rate on face of the bonds as well as the debtors' creditability.

(III). The prices of real property acquired or disposed shall be determined based on the current official land prices, the values appraised and the trading prices of nearby real property.

(IV). The prices of equipment acquired or disposed shall be determined through any manner among price competition under restricted tendering, price negotiation under single tendering or open tendering.

(V). The prices of memberships acquired or disposed shall be determined through either manner of price competition under restricted tendering or price negotiation under single tendering.

(VI). The prices of intangible assets acquired or disposed shall be determined in accordance with the related laws and regulations and contract(s).

- (VII). The price of right-of-use assets shall be determined in accordance with the related laws and regulations and relevant contract(s).
- (VIII). The prices of derivatives acquired or disposed shall be determined through the manner as set forth in Section Three under the Procedures.
- (IX). The prices of assets acquired or disposed through mergers, spin off, acquisitions, or transfer of shares shall be determined through the manner as set forth in Section Four under the Procedures.

II. Basis for reference of pricing

(I). Long- and short-term securities

To acquire or dispose securities, the Company shall, prior to the date of occurrence of the event, obtain financial statements of the target company for the most recent period that was certified or reviewed by a certified public accountant as a reference in appraising the transaction price. If the dollar amount of the transaction reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or exceeds NT$300 million or more, the Company shall engage a CPA prior to the date of occurrence of the event to provide an opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price. If the CPA needs to use a report of an expert as evidence, the CPA shall do so in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ROC Accounting Research and Development Foundation ("ARDF"). This requirement does not apply, however, to publicly quoted prices of securities that have an active market, or where otherwise provided by regulations of the government authorities.

(II). Real property, equipment or right-of-use assets

In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or right-of-use assets where the transaction amount reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company, except for transacting with a local government agency, engaging others to build on Company's own land, engaging others to build on rented land, or acquiring or disposing of equipment or right-of-use assets for business use, shall obtain an appraisal report prior to the date of occurrence of the event from a professional appraiser and shall further comply with the following provisions:

1. Where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or special price as a reference basis for the transaction price, the transaction shall be submitted for approval in advance by the Board of Directors, and the same procedure shall be followed for any future changes to the terms and conditions of the transaction.
2. Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained.
3. Where any one of the following circumstances applies with respect to the professional appraiser's appraisal results, unless the appraisal results for the assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant shall be engaged to perform the appraisal in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF and render a specific opinion regarding the reason for the discrepancy and the appropriateness of the transaction price:

- (1) The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20 percent or more of the transaction amount.
 - (2) The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10 percent or more of the transaction amount.
 4. No more than three months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided however, that where the publicly announced current value of the real property for the same period is used and not more than six months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.
 5. The term "professional appraiser" as set forth in the Procedures denotes a real property appraiser or other person duly authorized by laws to engage in the value appraisal of real property or equipment.
- (III). Intangible assets, right-of-use assets or memberships
- In acquiring or disposing of intangible assets, right-of-use assets or memberships where the transaction amount reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, except in transactions with a local government agency, the Company shall engage a certified public accountant prior to the date of occurrence of the event to render an opinion on the reasonableness of the transaction price; the CPA shall comply with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF.
- (IV). The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding three paragraphs shall be done in accordance with Paragraph 2, Article 5 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.
- (V). Derivatives: To be duly handled in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section Three.
- (VI). The prices of assets acquired or disposed through mergers, spin off, acquisitions, or transfer of shares shall be handled in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section Four.

III. Professional appraisers and their officers, certified public accounts, attorneys, and securities underwriters who provide appraisal reports, certified public accountant's opinions, attorney's opinions, or underwriter's opinions shall meet the qualifications and requirements set forth in the Regulations Governing the Acquisition and Disposal of Assets by Public Companies and related laws and regulations. The appraisal reports and opinions issued by the abovementioned professionals shall be prepared in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Acquisition and Disposal of Assets by Public Companies as well.

IV. Where the Company acquires or disposes assets through the court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be used to substitute appraisal report or CPA opinion.

Article IV: Operating Procedures
